No blood relationship. Maxine Fitch married Richard Ober who descended from the Gumps. Also I was interested because we went to Cedar Creek church, started by the Gumps.

hears it, it gets a stronger hold on him, and he begins to change his life. The faith he has in God, Jesus Christ, and his Word prompts him to turn completely around. Instead of reading the trashy literature that delighted him in former days, he now turns to God's Word and religious literature. Instead of the company of the wicked, and places of worldly amusement, he now seeks the company of good people, and the house of the Lord. His interest is not centered on the card table, the dancing hall, the theater, but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

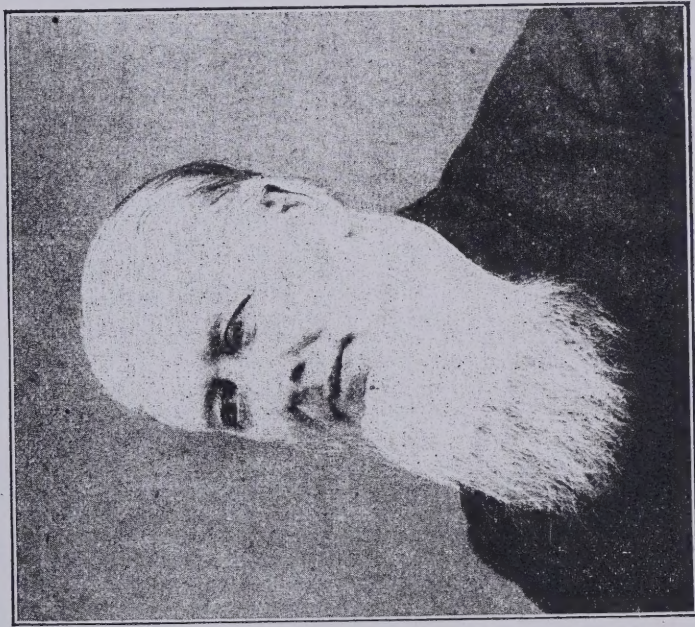

As he meditates on the goodness of God, he is led to repentance (Rom. 2:4). Like the Pentecostians, he demands, "What must I do?" Like the jailer he exclaims, "What must I do to be saved?" The Pentecostians felt they were sinners, and in the anguish of their souls they wanted to know just what to do to relieve them of their anguish of heart. Here we have sinners on the one hand, seeking earnestly what to do, and, on the other hand, we have an inspired man to tell them just what God wants them to do. We know he will tell them right.

What did Peter say? Did he tell them, "Come to the altar and pray until God speaks peace to your soul"? Had Peter said that, by the Spirit of God, that would have been just right, in the mind of some, but Peter did say, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost" (Acts 2:38).

Well, if the penitent sinner of today asks the ambassador for Christ what to do, and he tells him, as Peter did, will he tell him right? Surely. If he tells him something else, will he tell him right? Surely not. We started with the low-down sinner. He heard, for faith comes by hearing. His faith changed his mind. By hearing preaching, the reading of God's Word, and meditating on the same, his life was transformed. It caused him to repent, and now he possesses peace and his former sins are remitted. As in the cases of the Samaritans, and the twelve whom

When one of their daughters died, leaving two little children, Grandpa and Grandma Gump took the little ones into their home and cared for them until they were grown, and moved into homes of their own. They lived on the same farm for fifty-nine years. Bro. Gump and his companion lived together sixty-two years less two months.

He often said that much of his success in the church work was due to his faithful wife, who would take care of the children and the home many days and nights, while he would go on horseback, through heat and cold, far and near, over bad roads and through all kinds of weather, to preach the blessed Gospel to a lost world. He baptized many and preached a great many funeral sermons, of people both in and out of the church.

did you speak to them?" He said, "It did not cost me anything."

He was a great lover of children and young people. He always had something of interest about which to talk to them. He loved to get a little child on his lap and talk and sing for it. He loved good singing, and greatly enjoyed the old hymns. It almost seems as though I could still hear him sing:

"Our troubles and our trials here
Will only make us richer there,
When we arrive at home."

"Take your companion by the hand
And all the children in a band
And bring them up at Jesus' call,
To own, to bless and save them all."

"Moments and mercies multiplied
Have made up all this day.
Moments came fast, but mercies were
More fleet and free than they."

Then I also remember "How Firm a Foundation," "Jesus Shall Reign," "Asleep in Jesus," "Arise, My Soul, Arise," "Holy Spirit, Faithful Guide," and a great many other hymns that he delighted in singing.

Grandpa was a man of very clean habits. He often said he believed that "cleanliness was next to Godliness," and that "order was one of heaven's first laws." Everything about his person, his home, and his church work, proved that he practiced what he preached along those lines.

When some were talking of a division in the church, he made this remark to me: "Well, Sadie, we do not want division, but union upon gospel principles,—'In union there is strength.'" He then said: "I have labored long and hard, trying to preach a plain Gospel, and have not shunned to preach it as best I could. If the good ship Zion must be wrecked, I am going to try to hang on to the pieces."

When news of his death came, a man that had long been a neighbor of his said: "I have lived all my life close to Uncle Jerry, and I don't think he ever gave anybody a word of wrong advice."

The dear wife and mother, who will now soon be eighty years old, and who misses him so much, has the sympathy of all who know her. They always enjoyed each other's company so much, and often said (See Acts 8 and 19 and Heb. 6.)} Did not all the early Christians come this same way? The Samaritans did, the eunuch did, Saul did, the Corinthians, believing Saul's preaching, did, the jailer did.

The man who was once a sinner is now a saint. He has entered the Lord's army, and to reach heaven must live the Christ-life to the end of his natural life. He must observe the ordinances. Jesus said, "Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you." Duties daily and hourly come to him.

The truly converted man will obey from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered unto him. Being, then, made free from sin, he becomes the servant of God. He has his fruit unto holiness, and the end eternal life.

Elder Jeremiah Gump.

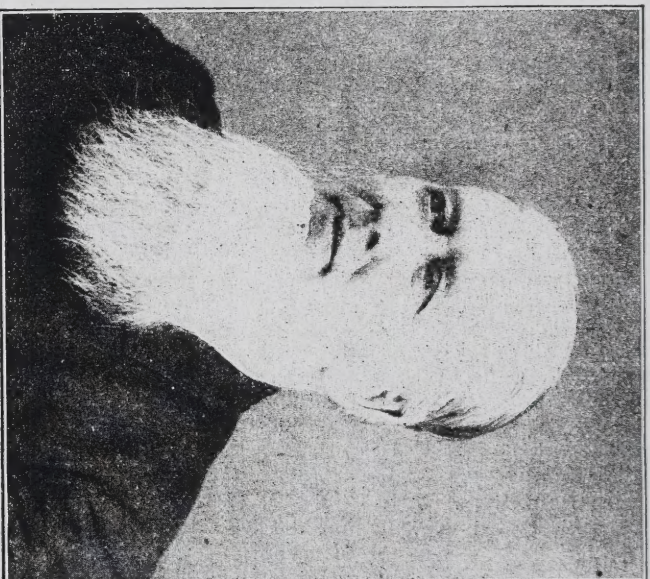

BY SADIE OBER, HIS GRANDDAUGHTER.

ELDER JEREMIAH GUMP, of Churubusco, Ind., was born May 7, 1829, in Miami County, Ohio, and died Nov. 18, 1912, aged 82 years. He was married to Sarah Shultz, of Huntingdon, Pa., in 1850, and three years later moved to Allen County, Ind., where he resided until his death. They moved into the woods and built up a very pleasant Christian home.

Bro. Gump and his wife united with the Church of the Brethren June 21, 1854. He was elected to the ministry in November of the same year, and advanced to the second degree of the ministry in 1857. In 1862 he was ordained to the eldership, and remained faithful to his calling, though in limited circumstances, and having but very little education. Only those who lived in those early days can know the many hardships endured. He cut the trees with which to build their large frame house, and cleared the fields. They raised a family of ten children.

When one of their daughters died, leaving two little children, Grandpa and Grandma Gump took the little ones into their home and cared for them until they were grown, and moved into homes of their own. They lived on the same farm for fifty-nine years. Bro. Gump and his companion lived together sixty-two years less two months.

He often said that much of his success in the church work was due to his faithful wife, who would take care of the children and the home many days and nights, while he would go on horseback, through heat and cold, far and near, over bad roads and through all kinds of weather, to preach the blessed Gospel to a lost world. He baptized many and preached a great many funeral sermons, of people both in and out of the church.

Elder Jeremiah Gump.

He visited the sick and anointed many, and also united many in the holy bonds of matrimony. The writer was the eldest granddaughter and the first of the grandchildren whom he united in marriage. He was elder of the same congregation for almost fifty years, and had the care of many other congregations. He was active until just one week before he died. He attended the council meeting at the Pleasant Hill church, very near his home, where he loved to be and labor, and where he seldom missed a meeting. He took an active part in the meetings, and as he passed out, his youngest child, Jesse A. Gump, took his place as elder of the Pleasant Hill church.

Grandpa Gump was a large man, weighing about 200 pounds, and was well proportioned. He stood erect and his step was as quick and firm as that of many a young man. His sight and hearing were splendid. He had a very friendly nature, which won for him a great many friends. He was always talkative, and loved to converse on religious subjects. He was also fond of company, of which they had a great deal. Sometimes, on love feast occasions, their house and barn would be crowded with visitors, but all were welcome.

He spent many days as well as many dollars in the building of the Pleasant Hill church. He prayed earnestly that the members might be faithful in all things. He was always glad when the time came to go to the house of God.

Sometimes he and his son and two grandsons, who were called to the ministry a few years ago, sat side by side in the stand. For a number of years there were four generations of his own family represented at almost every meeting. Nothing seemed to do him so much good as to see the children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren give their hearts to Christ.

He was much given to visiting the sick. On Tuesday, before he died on Saturday, Bro. Gump and wife visited the sick people in their little home town. He made it a rule of his life to speak to everybody he met. One time, as he was passing some one, he spoke, and the man who was with him said: "Did you know those people?" "No," was his reply. "Then, why

He was a great lover of children and young people. He always had something of interest about which to talk to them. He loved to get a little child on his lap and talk and sing for it. He loved good singing, and greatly enjoyed the old hymns. It almost seems as though I could still hear him sing:

They always enjoyed each other's company so much, and often said "If I miss all the feasts of the earth, I want to be present at the marriage supper of the Lamb." Grandpa Gump enjoyed good health until the last sickness came, which only lasted a few hours. Then he took his departure to the heavenly home.

THESE goes to Rome. She takes the Epistle to the Romans with her. Paul gives her the following letter of commendation: "I commend unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea: that ye receive her in the Lord, as I commendeth saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you; for she hath been a succorer of many, and of myself also" (Rom. 16: 1, 2).

This is a model church letter. It states the following facts:

1. That Phebe was a sister.
2. That she is our sister.
3. That she is a servant of the church.
4. That the church of which she is a servant is Cenchrea.

Paul now introduces her to the church at Rome with these requests:

1. "That ye receive her in the Lord as becometh saints."
2. "That ye assist her." How? "In whatsoever business she hath need of you." Why? "For hath been a succorer (patroness) of many, and myself also."

From this we infer that Phebe was a busy woman,—that she had some means, that she was ready and willing to help others. When she was in Rome, Paul directs the membership at Rome to receive her, not directly, but in her business, that she be able to continue in her work of benevolence.

Paul baptized at Ephesus, names are given. Grandpa Gump was baptized, and prayer is offered for the reception of the Holy Ghost. (See Acts 8 and 19 and Heb. 6.) Sadie Adella Ober was born Nov. 29, 1875 in Swan Township, Noble County. She was the daughter of Albert and Analyza Gump Peppie, who represented two of the pioneer families of Noble County. She spent her childhood days in Swan Township where she completed her education in the local schools after which she attended Tri-State Normal College and taught school several years in Noble County.

On July 4, 1897 she was united in marriage to David Ober who preceded her in death Aug. 10, 1931. After her marriage, she moved with her husband to Butler Township, DeKalb County where she reared her family and spent the remainder of her life. To this union were born two sons and two daughters, one daughter who died in infancy. She not only desired the blessings of her home for her own children, but shared it with two foster daughters.

In her early teens, she felt a desire to live her life to the fullest extent and joined the Church of the Brethren at Pleasant Hill. She was active for many years as a teacher in the Sunday Schools and always filled her place in any capacity in which she could promote her Master's work. On several occasions in her life she called for the anointing service so that she might have a closer fellowship with her Lord. On last Mar. 24 she again called for the anointing service and renewed her desire that God's will be done in her life.

Although she had suffered her share of sickness and adversity in this life, she was unusually joyful and happy through her entire life, and always deeply concerned about the welfare of others. On Mar. 17 she became ill with a fever and was bedfast until the time of her death. During her illness she was very patient and had full confidence that her life was being guided by a Hand from above. Saturday afternoon about five-thirty she suddenly suffered a heart attack and about half an hour later she joined her friends and loved ones in eternity. She had attained the age of 65 years, 5 months, and 4 days.

She leaves to mourn her departure one daughter, Mrs. Harry Brumbaugh of southwest of Garrett; two sons, Manford of near Albion, and Jesse of southwest of Garrett; two foster daughters, Mrs. Walter Davidson of northwest of Garrett, and Mrs. Richard

10. Anna Maria 8 Oct 1771-15 Oct 1771

Johann Georg Gump, age 22, and his wife, Rosina, landed in the port of Philadelphia, PA on 19 Sep 1732. They had gone from their home in Baden, Germany to Rotterdam where they sailed for America on the ship, Pink Johnson under the command of David Crockett (Rf-1). Johann Georg was the great-great-grandson of Caspar Gump who migrated from the area of Eichstatt, Bavaria to Huffenhardt, Germany before 1599 (Ap-31).

It is important to note that in German the surname was spelled "Gumpp" and the "u" was pronounced as it is in the English word "full". When Georg arrived he spelled and pronounced his name this way (Ap-4). Due to the influence of the American English-speaking society, the second "p" was soon dropped. By 1747 Georg was signing his name Joh. Georg Gump (Rf-23, p 93). In many records his name was written Georg Gump. (Here we shall refer to him as Georg or designate him by the letter "G" as our immigrant ancestor).

When Georg and Rosina landed in Philadelphia they went directly to Cocallico, a village in Lancaster Co, PA near Ephrata, where they remained for about two years. In 1735 they moved to Frederick Co, MD. Here they lived for the next 27 years, reared their family, became active members in the Moravian Church, were involved in civic affairs and farmed a large acreage, likely as a tobacco plantation.

Over the years Georg purchased several tracts of land in Frederick Co (Ap-10). In 1752 he combined some of his holdings to form a 766 acre plantation which he named Hufenhardt after his home town in Germany. This property, located about three and one-half miles S.W. of Frederick, MD, was the Gump homestead (Ap-2).

In 1762 Georg and Rosina and their two daughters, Margaretha and Dorothea, moved to York, PA. John, Rosina and Catharina, who were already married, remained in Frederick Co. Barbara already had gone to Bethlehem, PA to live. Margaretha married in Sep of that year and returned to Frederick Co with her husband.

On 18 Sep 1762, three months after arriving in York, Georg purchased a lot on the east side of Water Street where he and his family lived. Later he bought two more properties in York (Ap-11). Records indicate that he gradually simplified his holdings of both real estate and personal property. His taxables in 1783 were listed as one lot, one house, one male, two females, one horse and one horned cattle--value 126 pounds. Tax one pound, 11 shillings, three pence (Rf-5).

By the standards of his day, Georg was not wealthy. Apparently he made a comfortable living both in Maryland and in Pennsylvania. He was above average in his education and was a respected citizen in both communities (Ap-5, 12 & 13).

Georg and Rosina were raised as Lutherans (Rf-19) and attended the Luth/Ch for about 15 years after coming to America (Rf-23, p 93). In 1745 they made the acquaintance of Rev. John Herzer, a Moravian minister who was called to serve the Lutheran and Reformed Union Church on the Monocacy that year (Rf-20). Through him they were persuaded to adopt the United Brethren (better known as Moravian) faith.

On 23 Nov 1749 Georg joined the Mor/Ch at the First Synod of Warwick, Lancaster, PA (Rf-17, Ap-18). Almost two years later, on 3 Oct 1751 he attended the First Synod held in the community house at Lebanon in Lancaster Co. Rosina joined the congregation in Aug 1757 at the Synod in York. On 8 Oct 1758 they became charter members of the newly organized congregation at Graceland, a Moravian village in northern Frederick Co, MD at the foot of the Catoclin Mountains near present day Camp David. Records indicate that they played an important role in church affairs. They were mentioned often in the diaries kept by the ministers (Rf-20, Ap-22). Georg was especially active in his witness and was influential in founding the church on Carroll's Manor (Ap-27).

Rosina (Mack) Gump d 6 Jun 1769 after an illness of five months (Ap-16). At that time she had 14 grandchildren. The following year Georg married the widow Salome (Schwing) Rummel (Ap-35). She was born at Bashweiler, Alsace in 1729. Her first husband, Jacob Rummel, was b 6 Sep 1726. They married in 1749 and came to America that year, settling in York, PA. Jacob d 3 May 1759 at the age of 33.

The Moravian Brother Krogstrupp officiated at the wedding of Georg and Salome in York. The ceremony took place in the hall of the congregation in the presence of several brothers and sisters of the Mor/Ch. Salome had joined the church on the preceding Sunday at her own request (Rf-4). They lived together 22 years until the time of Georg's death. She died less than one year later in 1793 (Ap-25). Georg's will is recorded in the York Co C.H. (Will book 1789-1793, vol 8H, Folio 348).

The York Co pastor's diary records that Georg Gump died quietly at 3 P.M. on 7 Sep 1792 in his 83rd year. He had been growing weaker for some time. He was buried at 3 P.M. 9 Sep 1792. In spite of the fact that it was raining hard, such a large crowd attended the services that there was not room enough for all of them to be seated. The 73rd Psalm was read at the services.

Georg, Rosina, Dorothea and Anna Maria were buried in the Old First Moravian Church cemetery at York. In 1908 their coffins were moved to the Moravian Section of the Prospect Hill Cemetery in York (Ap-17).

G2 GUMP, ANDREW (ANDREAS) b Monocacy, MD 15 Sep 1735 s/o Johann Georg Gump & Rosina Mack d 1 May 1760. cem Old Moravian, Bethlehem, PA, Section for Mostly Unmarried Men, Row II, Grave 20 (Rf-8).

During Andrew's brief 25 years he had many health problems as well as a continuous struggle with his faith. He wanted to go to Bethlehem to live and work. Finally he received both the consent of his parents and the permission of the brethren to do so. He arrived there 24 Nov 1758, accompanied by his father. In Bethlehem he seemed to find a new peace. He became happy and cheerful in his religion and "accustomed himself to the simple and child-like fellowship of the Savior" (Ap-26).

Andrew was received into the church 15 Jul 1759 "after beseeching for it with tears in his eyes". He attended his first communion service 15 Feb 1760. At this time he lived with the single brethren and worked at his trade. He also sang in the single men's choir and was very much loved by the other members.

From Feb through Apr he was responsible for the "little boys" (presumed to be orphans) in the Brethren's House. However, as a result of frequent illnesses involving his chest, he finally went to the infirmary where on May 1 in the twelfth hour of the night he "left us". His last days were filled with peace, joy and anticipation of release from his suffering (Rf-38).

Barbara Gump must have gone to Bethlehem before 1762, since she did not accompany her parents in their move to York that year. She was living in Bethlehem in 1769 and probably worked there prior to her marriage.

Her first husband, Georg Frederick Bockel (Ap-19) was a prominent civic official in Bethlehem. He came to America from Germany in 1736 with his first wife, Elizabeth Rohrbach. They settled in Ber Co, PA, where Georg was one of the founders of the Mor/Ch at Heidelberg (Rf-8). Later he worked in the school at Germantown and then on the farms at Christianbrunn and Bethlehem. After the dissolution of the Economy (Ap-29) he was appointed farmer-general and placed in charge of the farm at Bethlehem. He and Elizabeth had two sons, Caspar and Tobias, and five daughters.

An interesting footnote to history concerns the Bockel family and the Marquis de Lafayette. While the Marquis was in America in 1777 assisting the colonists with the war, he was shot through the leg at the Battle of Brandywine. He was taken to Philadelphia, but could not remain there because of the approaching British army. Consequently he was brought by water to Bristol and then by carriage to the Moravian settlement in Bethlehem (Rf-12, p 93). There Barbara Bockel, realizing that all of the inns and public places were filled to overflowing with wounded soldiers, took him to her home and placed the whole upper floor at his disposal. He remained in the Bockel home from 20 Sep to 18 Oct 1777 cared for by his two French servants and nursed by young Liesel Bockel (Ap-20; Rf-16, p 202).

Barbara's second husband, the Rev. Paul Munster, was born in Moravia (Ap-23). His ancestors belonged to the Old Moravian Church and suffered cruel persecution. He was ordained a deacon in 1746 and served in Holland and England until 1761, when he came to America as pastor of the Moravian congregation in Bethlehem.

"Paul Munster, a Moravian refugee, was for thirty years identified with the Collegiate Pastorate at Bethlehem, for a while with the wardenship and for a few years with the general executive board" (Rf-10, p 377). His first wife, Anna Kremsler, died in 1779.

As the wife of the pastor of the Bethlehem Mor/Ch, Barbara's life must have been a busy one. Her husband was clearly a beloved and respected pastor and involved in many activities (Ap-22, 24).

Although Johann Georg Gump, the immigrant, had at least four sons and possibly six, only John and Andrew lived to maturity. Since Andrew died unmd at the age of 24, all persons descended from Johann Georg who have carried the Gump name belong to the line of his son John.

John is mentioned throughout the Graceham Mor/Ch records. At the age of 23 he married Juliana, who was 18. They were the first couple to marry in the newly founded church. In an article published in the records of the Moravian Historical Society (Rf-20), the Rev. A. L. Oertter quotes from the Graceham Archives as follows: "Feb 2, 1762 - Brother Zahn held the first marriage ceremony after the organization, viz.: that of John Gump, a son of Bro. and Sr. George Gump, residing about three miles beyond Fredericktown*, and Juliana Weller a daughter of Bro. Jacob Weller, and his wife, Sister Maria Barbara, who had departed this life in 1754."

*In colonial days Frederick, MD was called Fredericktown and York, PA was called Yorktown.)

During their 33 years of marriage, John and Juliana lived in upper Frederick Co near Graceham. In 1800, when the county was divided into districts, Graceham became a part of Emmitsburg Dist. No. 5 (History of Emmitsburg, MD, by Helman, pub. 1906).

When the Rev War broke out, John enlisted and served with the Maryland Line. Although, to our knowledge, there are no family records pertaining to his war service, the public records show that he fought in the Rev for at least 7 years. It was against the principles of the Mor/Ch to bear arms, but some members did join the militia, and John Gump was one of them. He was a sergeant in Capt. Jacob Ambrose's company, one of the four companies raised in Frederick Co. The military situation at the time is described by Daniel W. Nead in The Pennsylvania-German in the Settlement of Maryland

(Rf-23, p 205):

Throughout the summer of 1775 the citizens of western Maryland, comprising chiefly the German element of the Province, were actively engaged in preparing for the war which they now knew was inevitable. Men enrolled themselves into companies and perfected themselves in military tactics under officers of their own choosing. These companies, numbering 250 men, were attached to one of the battalions raised in Frederick Co and performed active service throughout the war."

There are three other references to John in the war records: The first shows his name on a list of "Associators Returned", dated Dec 27, 1775 (Rf-26, vol 11, p 167). An associator was a man ready and willing to take up arms when called upon to do so. The second in the Archives of Maryland, vol 43, p 44, is dated Dec 30, 1779. It states that the Western Shore Treasurer was ordered to reimburse John Gump in the amount of three pounds, five shillings. The third, found in the Hall of Records, Annapolis, MD, is headed "Indentant's Orders No. 1, Folio 69, Sep 4, 1782. (Muster rolls - Orders issued by the Governor and Council of the Treasury.) It reads, "John Gump, issued 106 pounds, 17 shillings, 3 pence in back pay." The reason there is no pension record for John is that he died in 1816, two years before pensions were granted to non-disabled soldiers.

The location of John's farm appears to have been directly north of Graceham and northeast of and near Thurmont, MD. It was situated at the head of Little Captain's Creek.

In 1769, several years after John's father, Johann Georg, moved to York, PA, he deeded over to John most of the property he still owned in Frederick Co (Ap-10). It consisted of the entire 142 acres known as Chestnut Hill, 19 acres of Gump's Addition and 16 acres of the Resurvey of Four Springs. This land was contiguous to Buck Horn, a 49 acre tract John already owned.

In 1773 John had all of his land holdings and a contiguous vacant resurveyed. Subsequently he received a patent for a tract of 247 acres which he called EMPTY POCKET (Ap-10-F). A quarter of a century later, John sold 111 acres of Empty Pocket for 36 pounds. The remainder he left to his sons in his will: George, the eldest, inherited 130 acres of it on condition that he carry out certain provisions of the will for the benefit of John's widow and two daughters. John Jr and Jacob each received 53 acres.

In 1817 John Jr's share was sold for $1,113; and George and Jacob who were preparing to move to Ohio, sold their two shares for the sum of $5,000. With the sale of Empty Pocket and the move westward by George, Jacob and the three sons of John Jr in 1818, Gump ownership of property in Frederick Co, MD came to an end. For 83 years, Johann Georg, followed by his children and grandchildren, had been a part of the Maryland scene. They had contributed to its economy, to its religious and social life and through John's war service to its freedom and peace. Some of Johann Georg's descendants through his daughters' lines (Williard, Kast, Heil) may still live in Frederick Co, MD. His descendants through his son John are more likely to be found in PA, OH, IN, MO or KS.

Elias was born in Baalborn, Pfalz, Ger. and came to Am. with his parents on the ship Brotherhood in Nov 1750. He fought in the French and Indian War in 1757-1758. During the Rev War he served as a second lieutenant with his brother-in-law, Capt. George Poe, (great uncle of Edgar Allen Poe). They were both highly respected citizens of Frederick Co (Rf-28-b). In 1763 Elias began recording in his family Bible (Rf-25) the birth, death and marriage records of the Burkittsville community until such a time as a new church could be built. He continued the practice until his death. The Burkittsville Church of the Resurrection (Reformed) was completed in 1829. Elias's will is recorded at the Frederick Co C.H. - Liber H.S. No 2, Folio 256.

Elias Williard's Bible, a 2nd Edition, 1763 Christopher Sower, Jr. Bible is in the Hood College Library, Frederick, MD. His entries in German script, are especially valuable to genealogists who are studying records of that area from the first quarter of the 19th century.

- The name is spelled Kaspin but is corrected on p 386 to Kastin.
Note. The "in" is a German suffix sometimes added to a woman's surname.

Kast CH:

1. Mary Margaretha 29 Sep 1763-(Rf-31, p 633 "Baptisms at Graceham" - 8 Apr 1764). Mary Margaretha (b 29 Sep 1763) d/o George and Catharina Kast of Carroll's Manor. Sponsors: Franz Kast and his wife Margaretha. Witnesses: Fanny Kast & Margaret Sydrich. (Daniel Sydrich was assistant pastor of the Graceham Ch from 31 Jul 1763 to 23 Jun 1766.)
2. Maria Catharine 6 Jan 1767-Records of the Evan Ref/Ch, Frederick, MD state that Maria Catharine, d/o George and Catharine Cost, was born 6 Jan 1767 and baptized 17 May 1767.

The family resided in Frederick Co, MD where both children were born. During the latter half of the 18th century four heads of families named George Kast (Cost) resided in the same county.

At the Hall of Records, Annapolis, MD under Inventories 1768 there is a final accounting of the estate of George Kast by his wife, Catharine. Among the debtors were Francis (Franz) Kast and Elias Williard who, according to the Testamentary Proceedings for the deceased held 14 Sep 1767, stood surety for the widow. Since Franz is considered by at least one researcher to have been the brother of Catharina Gump's husband and Elias was married to Catharina's sister, Rosina, it seems safe to assume that this record refers to George and Catharina (Gump) Kast. Maryland and Delaware Genealogist, 1965, vol 6, pp 89-90 "Cost Family of Frederick Co, MD," by Adele Moody.

These two men were also involved in another family relationship. Elias's sister, Maria Elizabeth Williard (1752-1821) (Ap-38) married George Cost, son of Franz Kast and his wife, Margaretha, who had come to America from Zweilrucken, Ger in 1753. George and Elizabeth and their six children lived in Middletown Valley. George died there in the fall of 1819, leaving his plantation to his only son, George Jr, who married Elizabeth Dean. George, Jr died in 1846.

Elias Williard was acquainted with still another George Kast. On 11 Jan 1817 he wrote in his Bible (Rf-25), where he kept a record of the comings and goings in his community, that George Kast of Elmwood "left for Herschman's", his in-laws. He died there within a few weeks and his will was probated 6 Feb 1817. His wife, Anna Maria (Harshman) Kast, was named executrix. (Frederick Co Wills, Liber H.S. No. 1, Folio 153.) She and George had married 6 Jan 1799 (records of the Lutheran Congregation of Zion at Middletown). After George's death, Anna Maria moved to Green Co, OH nr Dayton. When her will was probated in Montgomery Co, OH in 1846, a copy of George's will was recorded along with it.

Very little is known about Leonhard and Margaretha except that after the birth of their daughter, Rosina, they moved to Monocacy, in Frederick Co, MD (Rf-19, vol IV, p 361). They were still living there in 1775, as Leonhard's name was on a list of Frederick Co Associates that year (Rf-26, vol 11, pp 163-175). The only other mention of them was the date of Margaretha's death, recorded in the family Bible of her brother-in-law, Elias Williard, of Middletown Valley, Frederick Co, MD (Rf-25). It said simply: "On August 12, 1815, Margaret Heil, mother's sister, departed this life."

where his cousin John (G41-1) lived. Whether by intention or a following year he married.

According to land records at the Bedford Co C.H., Benjamin sold some land, appraised at $8.33 an acre, on 27 Nov 1824. That record stated that Benjamin's wife, Hester, was a daughter of the late Jacob Smith (Schmidt), a widower of Colerain Twp. Hester was born in Germany. Her sister, Mary Ann Smith, married Anthony Hersheiser, most likely a son of Ludwig. Between 1827 and 1830 both couples moved to Sharon Twp, Richland Co, OH. The nearest town was Shelby, but long before it was laid out, the area was known as Gamble's Mill. Among the earliest settlers were the Gump, Hersheiser, Mowery they gathered to worship in each other's homes, but in 1832 built
